

BALLARAT

- ① Red Duck Beer A4
- ② Kilderkin Distillery E4
- ③ Cubby Haus Brewing E5
- ④ Cafe Sidra/Learmonth Cider B1
- ⑤ Hop Temple F3
- ⑥ The Mallow Hotel E4
- ⑦ Ballarat Home Brew Centre D4
- ⑧ Aunty Jacks F3
- ⑨ AC Hops H3
- ⑩ Joe White Maltings B4
- ⑪ Bankhouse Brewery H3
- ⑫ Rebellion Brewing/O'Brien Beer A1

 Visitor Information Centre

 Train station

1km

Red Duck Beer

11A Michaels Drive, Alfredton
p: (03) 5332 0723
w: redduckbeer.com.au

Red Duck is well known as one of the pioneers of the Australian Craft Beer revolution. They are a small artisan, independent brewery that has been operating since 2005. Traditionally brewed with a great range of regular beers and an ever changing line up of seasonals.

Kilderkin Distillery

14 Hill Street, Mount Pleasant
p: 0424 791 790
w: kilderkindistillery.com.au

Kilderkin Distillery, the home of Larrikin Gin, is the first distillery in the Ballarat region since the 1930s. With a focus on producing high quality spirits and liqueurs, the craft distillery has received national and international awards for its premium gins. In true larrikin spirit, the distillery continues to push the boundaries and explore new flavours.

Cubby Haus Brewing

884 Humffray Street South, Mount Pleasant
p: (03) 4343 1777
w: cubbyhausbrewing.com.au

This hand-built 500 litre brew house makes great natural beers. Choose from 10 beers on tap, which are based on traditional styles from around the world, or take your pick from the ever-expanding list of seasonals. Join brewer Malcolm Sachs for beer tastings in the brewery bar, or simply sit back and sip on their unique range of beers, local wines, ciders and spirits. You can also grab a pizza or two every Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Cafe Sidra Learmonth Cider

321 High Street, Learmonth
p: (03) 5343 2272
w: cafesidra.com

At the heart of Cafe Sidra in historic Learmonth is top local cider and wine, great food plus a relaxed ambiance. It also serves as a cellar door for Learmonth Cider, which is traditionally made using cider apples grown chemical-free at the nearby Spring Vale Farm.

1

2

3

4

Hop Temple

Rear of 24-28 Armstrong Street Nth, Ballarat
p: (03) 5317 7158
w: hoptemple.com.au

Follow the umbrellas and festoon lighting to a hidden laneway delight. Hop Temple boasts more than 220 craft beer and ciders – the largest range in Victoria – and an extensive selection of wine and spirits with food to compliment.

The Mallow Hotel

20 Skipton Street, Ballarat
p: (03) 5331 1073
w: themallow.com.au

The Mallow is an intimate and friendly local pub, serving up Ballarat's largest range of independent craft beers on tap (as well as classic Melbourne Bitter) and a wine list full of tasty local drops. It is renowned for quality dining options, including classic pub dishes and a constantly-changing specials board.

Ballarat Home Brew Centre

1/314 Ripon Street South, Ballarat
p: (03) 5333 5825
w: ballarathomebrew.com.au

Ballarat Home Brew Centre understands the passion of home brewers and its philosophy is simple – provide the best quality products, service and advice to a dedicated and growing community of people committed to the ancient craft of brewing.

Aunty Jacks

315-317 Mair Street, Ballarat
p: (03) 5300 1407
w: auntyjacks.com.au

Aunty Jacks brewpub in Central Ballarat is one-of-a-kind. It is the place to visit and learn about all things beer – celebrating the artisan craft of brewing, sustainable agriculture and a taste that is uniquely Ballarat. Pair your drinks with some tasty nibbles and soak in the impressive venue and brewery atmosphere.

5

6

7

8

AC Hops

p: 0448 384 963
w: achops.com.au

Every craft beer has a story and AC Hops has been helping shape the paddock to pint story of local brews for years. The family-owned and operated business produces great quality, flavour-packed hops for local brewers direct from their farm at Dean, just outside Ballarat. Bookings by appointment only.

Joe White Maltings

w: joewhitemaltings.com.au

Joe White Maltings has been a Ballarat Institution since 1858. Their rich multi-generational knowledge in the science of malting is combined with state-of-the-art roasters at their Delacombe Specialty Malt Facility, serving today's brewers and distillers with craft base, specialty and single-sourced signature malts. Bookings by appointment only.

Bankhouse Brewery

1360 Ballarat-Daylesford Rd, Dean
p: 0407 687 291
w: facebook.com/Bank-House-Brewery

Sitting pretty in the old bank building at Dean is Bankhouse Brewery. The brewers here make great hand-crafted beer and alcoholic ginger beer, sourced locally wherever possible, in one of Australia's smallest breweries. Open weekends, some afternoons and available most times by prior arrangement.

Rebellion Brewing/ O'Brien Beer

36 Gregory Street West, Wendouree
p: (03) 5334 2288
w: rebellionbrewing.com.au

The gluten-free O'Brien Beer is made using the best quality millet and sorghum sourced from local Aussie farmers. Because the brewing process is so different than that for barley and wheat-based beer, the Wendouree brewery is specially fitted with customised equipment that sets O'Brien Beer apart from other brewers. They might only open during normal business hours for pre-packaged beer sales only, but you can also find their beer being served at bars, restaurants and pubs around the region.

9

10

11

12

Dollar Bill Brewing

w: dollarbill.com.au

Dollar Bill Brewing is a Ballarat-based brewing and blending company. Fresh pressed fruit, honey and wort is sourced from local producers before being fermented and aged in French oak barrels. These barrels are then blended to create Belgian-inspired ales, ciders, mead and barrel-aged beers. Bookings by appointment only.

House of Malt

w: houseofmalt.com.au

House of Malt's goal is to provide high quality malt products that enable people to broaden their options for creating unique beers and spirits. The small batch Delacombe malthouse utilises the age-old technique of floor malting, along with modern steeping and kilning technology. Bookings by appointment only.

Ballarat Beer Festival

w: ballaratbeerfestival.com.au

Held in February each year, the Ballarat Beer Festival is a celebration of great craft beer and passionate brewers in Australia's original beer capital. The event showcases more than 150 different brews along with award-winning regional wine and live music in a family-friendly atmosphere. It is preceded by a five-course degustation dinner with matched craft beers and regional wines.

BALLARAT CRAFT BEER TRAIL

While gold reached legendary status long ago, an uncertain something lives on in the people and produce of Ballarat. Nothing illustrates this more perfectly than the city's burgeoning and passionate brewing and distilling scene.

visitballarat.com.au
madeofballarat.com.au

MADE OF: BALLARAT

CITY OF BALLARAT

Note: Please contact individual businesses for opening times.